

PRIVACY NOTICE FOR BALFOUR JUNIOR ACADEMY HOW WE USE PUPIL INFORMATION

Why do we collect and use pupil information?

Balfour Junior Academy is a data controller for the purposes of the Data Protection Act. We collect information from you and may receive information about you from your previous school, Medway Council, external agencies and the Learning Records Service.

The lawful basis for us collecting and using general pupil information is Article 6 from General Data Protection Regulations / 25 May 2018 and Article 9 - for special categories of personal data.

Examples for data collection purposes are the Education Act 1996 – this information can be found in the census guide documents on the following website

<https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

We use the pupil data:

- 🛡️ to support pupil learning
- 🛡️ to monitor and report on pupil progress
- 🛡️ to provide appropriate pastoral care
- 🛡️ to assess the quality of our services
- 🛡️ to comply with the law regarding data sharing

The categories of pupil information that we collect, hold and share include:

- 🛡️ Personal information (such as name, unique pupil number and address)
- 🛡️ Characteristics (such as ethnicity, language, nationality, country of birth and free school meal eligibility)
- 🛡️ Attendance information (such as sessions attended, number of absences and absence reasons)
- 🛡️ Assessment information, relevant medical information, special educational needs information, exclusions / behavioural information

Collecting pupil information

Whilst the majority of pupil information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain pupil information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing pupil data

We hold electronic data for 21 years from the date of leaving.

Who do we share pupil information with?

We routinely share pupil information with:

-  schools that the pupil's attend after leaving us
-  our local authority
-  the Department for Education (DfE)
-  the FPTA MAT

Why we share pupil information

We do not share information about our pupils with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

We share pupils' data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins school funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring.

We are required to share information about our pupils with the (DfE) under regulation 5 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

Data collection requirements:

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education (for example; via the school census) go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

The National Pupil Database (NPD)

The NPD is owned and managed by the Department for Education and contains information about pupils in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.

We are required by law, to provide information about our pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The law that allows this is the Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

To find out more about the pupil information we share with the department, for the purpose of data collections, go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

To find out more about the NPD, go to <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>.

The department may share information about our pupils from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- 🏰 conducting research or analysis
- 🏰 producing statistics
- 🏰 providing information, advice or guidance

The Department has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data. Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- 🏰 who is requesting the data
- 🏰 the purpose for which it is required
- 🏰 the level and sensitivity of data requested: and
- 🏰 the arrangements in place to store and handle the data

To be granted access to pupil information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.
